

The Canterville Ghost

Oscar Wilde

Introduction

?A terrifying ghost is haunting the ancient mansion of Canterville Chase, whole with creaking floorboards, clanking chains and ugly disguises - however the new occupants appear surprisingly undisturbed by way of his presence. Deftly contrasting the traditional gothic ghost story with the pragmatism of the present day global, Wilde creates a lightly comic histoire of the battle between old and new. Rupert Degas hilarious studying brings the absurdity and theatricality of the story to life.
